Land

This breathtaking property is a true natural oasis, featuring a diverse and dynamic landscape that offers both beauty and functionality. Rolling hills, mature hardwood forests, and open meadows provide a stunning backdrop, while a network of creeks and cascading waterfalls enhances the land's serenity and charm. A 1/3-acre pond adds to the property's appeal, offering a peaceful spot for fishing or enjoying nature.

Paunch Creek serves as the eastern boundary for the 61-acre and 180-acre parcels, providing a scenic water feature and natural separation. On the 400-acre and 460-acre parcels, the creek winds through the middle of the property, creating a dramatic landscape with additional secondary creeks and waterfalls that further enhance the natural beauty. These flowing water sources attract abundant wildlife, making the property ideal for hunting, fishing, and outdoor recreation.

Miles of well-maintained trails traverse the land, perfect for hiking, horseback riding, or ATV adventures. With a mix of wooded terrain, open fields, and water access, the land is well-suited for agriculture, homesteading, or simply enjoying the peace and privacy of Kentucky's countryside. Over six dozen species of trees and bushes, including fruit-bearing varieties, provide rich biodiversity, while the mature timber stand offers long-term investment potential.

Whether you seek a private retreat, a working homestead, or a recreational paradise, this property offers a rare combination of natural beauty, functional land, and endless outdoor opportunities.

Improvements

This meticulously designed 5,500-square-foot home at 1824 Kingtown Road in Strunk, Kentucky, offers six bedrooms and five bathrooms, seamlessly blending modern amenities with thoughtful, future-ready features. The property includes two attached garages—one on the main level for everyday convenience and another on the lower level, ideal for a workshop, lawn equipment, or additional storage. An expansive 48×31 detached four-bay garage, constructed with energy-efficient Insulating Concrete Forms (ICF), provides ample space for vehicles, tools, or recreational storage.

Interior Highlights:

- Energy-Efficient Design: Marvin windows, LED recessed lighting, and a 600-amp electrical system enhance durability and sustainability.
- Enhanced Connectivity & Security: Fiber optic internet, Wi-Fi boosters on every floor, 3 ring doorbells, and hardwired Nest smoke + carbon monoxide detectors with voice alert and path light.
- Senior-Friendly Features: 7" treads on stairs for easier navigation.
- Recreation & Relaxation: A dedicated aquatic room with a swim spa and hot tub.
- Future-Proofing: Space for elevator shaft, ready for future installation.
- Climate & Air Control: 3 separate HVAC systems + 2 ERV (energy recovery ventilator) systems that retains 85% of energy, and a whole-house water filtration system.
- Safety & Electrical Infrastructure: Ground fault protection breakers and extensive hardwiring to the mechanical room, ensuring seamless operation of all systems. 4th circuit breaker box for future generator.

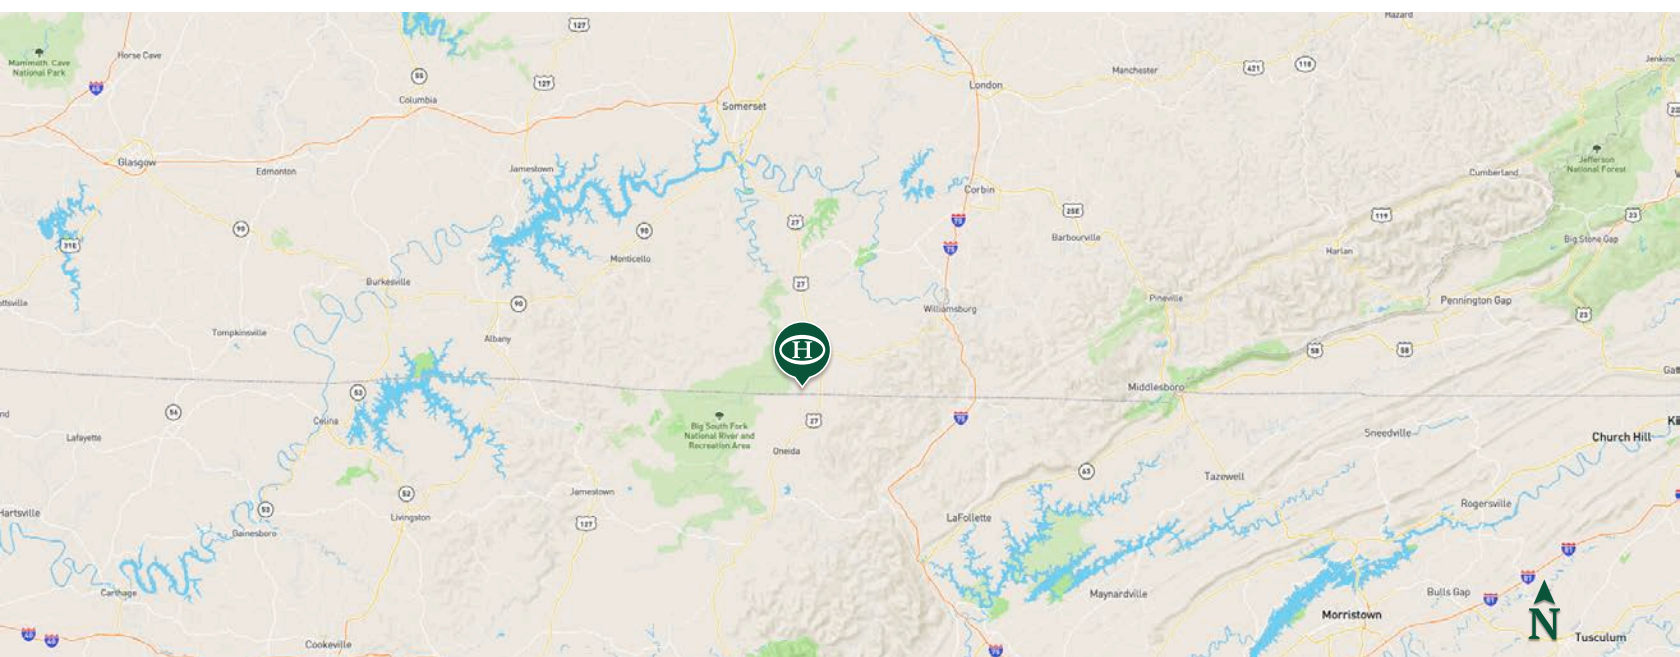

Blending privacy, efficiency, and comfort, this home offers a rare opportunity for those seeking a modern retreat with high-end functionality and space to accommodate multigenerational living, a hobbyist's workshop, or an outdoor enthusiast's dream property.

Recreation

A true outdoor paradise, this exceptional property offers an unparalleled recreational experience, making it ideal for nature lovers, adventurers, and those seeking a private retreat. Featuring an extensive network of well-maintained trails, the land is perfect for hiking, horseback riding, ATV excursions, or simply exploring the breathtaking natural surroundings. Towering hardwood forests, rolling hills, and dramatic cliffs provide stunning scenery, while the property's secondary creek and waterfall add to the serene ambiance.

For wildlife enthusiasts, the land is teeming with biodiversity, with over four dozen species of birds identified, including majestic birds of prey, woodpeckers, and waterfowl. Every major mammal species native to Kentucky, except elk, has been observed on the property, making it an exceptional location for wildlife watching or hunting. The mature timber, growing fruit trees, and a variety of wildflowers attract deer, turkey, and other game, offering excellent hunting opportunities.

Fishing and water recreation are also abundant, with the property featuring a scenic 1/3-acre pond and Roaring Paunch Creek forming its eastern border. These natural water sources provide a peaceful setting for fishing, kayaking, or simply relaxing by the water's edge.

Beyond the land's rugged beauty, the home itself is designed for comfort after a day of outdoor activity. The private aquatic room, complete with a swim spa and hot tub, provides the perfect way to unwind. The expansive detached garage and two attached garages offer ample space for storing recreational equipment, from ATVs and boats to hunting and fishing gear.

With breathtaking long-range views of the Cumberland Mountains and South Fork River hills, this property is not just a home—it's a retreat where adventure and tranquility seamlessly blend. Whether used as a full-time residence, a hunting lodge, or a private escape, it offers a rare opportunity to own a piece of Kentucky's natural splendor.

Agriculture

This prime agricultural property offers a blend of fertile land, timber, and natural water sources, ideal for farming, livestock, or homesteading. Featuring fruit-bearing trees, rich soil, and open pastures, it's perfect for orchards, rotational grazing, or sustainable agriculture. Roaring Paunch Creek, a secondary creek with a waterfall, and a 1/3-acre pond provide ample water for irrigation and livestock. A four-bay detached garage and multiple storage areas offer space for farming equipment, while the energy-efficient ICF-built home enhances sustainability. With diverse hardwoods, long-range views of the Cumberland Mountains, and abundant wildlife, this Kentucky farm property is a rare opportunity for those seeking self-sufficiency, equestrian use, or a private rural retreat.

Region & Climate

Located in McCreary County, Kentucky, Strunk offers the perfect balance of rural tranquility and access to outdoor adventure. Surrounded by the scenic Daniel Boone National Forest, the area is ideal for hiking, fishing, hunting, and horseback riding. The nearby Big South Fork National River & Recreation Area provides endless opportunities for kayaking, rock climbing, and exploring waterfalls. The region experiences four distinct seasons, with mild winters, vibrant fall foliage, and warm summers perfect for outdoor recreation. With a strong sense of community, local festivals, and proximity to Tennessee, Strunk is a hidden gem for those seeking a peaceful yet active lifestyle.

History

Strunk, Kentucky, is nestled in McCreary County, a region rich in Appalachian heritage and deep-rooted history. Originally part of Wayne and Whitley counties, McCreary County was established in 1912 and is the youngest county in Kentucky. The area was shaped by the timber and coal industries, with railroads playing a crucial role in its development. Nearby Stearns, once a booming coal and lumber town, is home to the historic Big South Fork Scenic Railway and the McCreary County Museum, preserving the region's industrial past. Today, the area's history lives on through its resilient communities, natural landscapes, and preserved historic sites.

Location

1824 Kingtown Road in Strunk, Kentucky, is conveniently located near the Kentucky-Tennessee border, offering residents easy access to the amenities and attractions of both states. The property is approximately 92 miles from McGhee Tyson Airport in Knoxville, Tennessee, providing options for domestic travel. The nearby town of Pine Knot, just a short drive away, offers essential services such as grocery stores, restaurants, and healthcare facilities. The property's proximity to Tennessee enhances its appeal, granting residents the opportunity to enjoy the cultural and recreational offerings of both states.

THE BRAND THAT SELLS THE Land®

Hayden Outdoors is a family-owned real estate company and brokerage with a background in the cattle and ranching business. In 1976, Leo Hayden founded the company as the Property Exchange, working with farms and ranches for sale near Hays, Kansas. The brokerage moved to Goodland, Kansas in 1981 and became Hayden Inc. In the late 1990's, Leo was joined by his two sons, Dax and Seth, to help grow the business in multiple states. In 2003, Hayden Outdoors was formed to represent sellers and buyers on farm, ranch, and recreational properties in the Great Plains and Rocky Mountains.

The team at Hayden Outdoors has grown and prospered to include over 200 brokers, agents, and an excellent full-time staff supporting the sale of rural land. Hayden Outdoors represents the finest farms, legacy properties, working ranches, hunting lands and recreational properties from coast to coast.

Over time, we have built our team to be composed of brokers and agents with experience and knowledge in their markets and an affinity to "Do what they say they will". Hayden Outdoors is about honesty and integrity with customers and a rich sense of land stewardship. We understand land, water, habitat, livestock, wildlife, minerals and what is necessary to maximize value for our clients. We truly love the great outdoors!

We are blessed to work with the owners and buyers of the farms, ranches and other fine recreational properties we represent, because it is still the diversity of owners over the years that make these places so special.

At Hayden Outdoors, we're proud to say that we only work with the best brokers and agents who are experienced farmers, ranchers & outdoor enthusiasts.
